

The background of the poster is a vibrant blue with abstract white brushstrokes. These strokes vary in thickness and intensity, creating a dynamic and expressive texture. Some strokes are vertical or horizontal, while others are more organic and fluid. There are also several dark blue circular shapes scattered across the surface, some with internal white dots. The overall effect is reminiscent of a Jackson Pollock painting.

PRÉFACE

C'est avec grand plaisir qu'Opera Gallery vous invite à notre exposition rituelle du Monaco Masters Show. Convaincus que c'est en conservant ces moments créés avec vous au sein de la galerie que nous traverserons ces temps difficiles, nous tenions à ouvrir l'été 2020 avec notre Masters Show. Sous le Haut Patronage de Son Altesse Sérénissime le Prince Albert II de Monaco, cette nouvelle exposition retrace l'excellence toujours renouvelée des grands maîtres de l'art moderne et contemporain.

Les œuvres des maîtres français Marc Chagall et Bernard Buffet présentent leurs vues de Paris comme autant d'échos réverbérés au-delà de l'espace et du temps. Le génie espagnol de Pablo Picasso s'invite également dans notre scénographie, au travers d'œuvres de jeunesse, rarement exposées en galerie. Véritable chrestomathie visuelle des grands noms de l'art d'après-guerre, ce Masters Show exceptionnel recueille des sculptures cinétiques d'Alexander Calder et des toiles de maîtres tels Hans Hartung, Jean Dubuffet, ou même Joan Miró et Fernand Léger. Particulièrement célébré pour son centième anniversaire en décembre dernier, Pierre Soulages nous plonge dans ses lumineuses explorations du noir.

Des pièces maîtresses d'Andy Warhol et de Tom Wesselmann soulignent la diversité du Pop Art, et Keith Haring en atteste l'évolution. L'adjonction de pièces plus contemporaines de Fernando Botero, George Condo ou Robert Combas ancre cette exposition dans le présent et confirme que la quête de l'esthétique est inextinguible. C'est ce choix conscient d'œuvres et d'artistes qui rend ce rendez-vous annuel unique et qui fait transparaître notre message : inspirons-nous des grands du passé pour asseoir notre présent. Apprécions la force de ces maîtres d'hier et utilisons-la comme source d'inspiration et d'émerveillement. Ce sont eux qui ont ouvert la voie aux nouveaux maîtres de l'art contemporain, tels Alex Katz ou Manolo Valdés.

Joignant le meilleur de l'esthétique à une cause qui lui tient à cœur, Opera Gallery Monaco s'est engagée à partager une partie des bénéfices de ventes de cette exposition avec l'association caritative monégasque Mission Enfance. C'est grâce à leur remarquable travail et à leurs efforts sans relâche que des milliers d'enfants défavorisés partout dans le monde ont accès à l'éducation qu'ils méritent.

C'est avec un immense plaisir que nous vous invitons maintenant à plonger dans notre Monaco Masters Show 2020, hommage à nos grands maîtres et à l'art contemporain.

It is with great delight that Opera Gallery Monaco opens its now ritualistic Monaco Masters Show for this year 2020. Convinced that it is in protecting these traditions created with you at the gallery that we can find anchorage in these floating, uncertain times, we were adamant that this summer too shall open on an exhibition. Under the High Patronage of His Serene Highness the Prince Albert II of Monaco, this new Masters Show retraces the constantly renewed excellence of the Masters of Modern and Contemporary Art.

Works from French Masters such as Marc Chagall and Bernard Buffet present their visions of Parisian life, creating echoes of the City of Lights away from space and time. Spanish genius Pablo Picasso is also a part of this show, through some of his rarely seen earlier works. As a true master class of History of Art would, all the greatest names of Post-War art are represented: Hans Hartung, Alexander Calder and his kinetic sculptures, Jean Dubuffet, or even Joan Miró and Fernand Léger. At the apex of his popularity and celebrating his 100th birthday last December, Pierre Soulages' explorations of the lightness of black will also be exhibited.

Stellar works by American artists Andy Warhol and Tom Wesselmann reveal the diversity of Pop Art and its ramifications into the colourful masterpieces from Keith Haring. More Contemporary works by Fernando Botero, George Condo, or Robert Combas connect this show to the present, confirming that aesthetics are ever changing and in perpetual resumption. It is through this subtle blend of influences and techniques that the Opera Gallery Monaco team weaves a curatorial that reflects our current motto: relying on the great names of the past to ground our present. Celebrating these pillars of yore and finding strength and inspiration in their beauty. It is thanks to their work that Contemporary Masters, such as Alex Katz or Manolo Valdés, find their own inspiration.

Joining elite aesthetics to a worthy cause, Opera Gallery Monaco is committed to sharing a percentage of the proceeds from this event with the Monegasque association Mission Enfance. Their tireless and determined action in the field of education has allowed thousands of underprivileged children across the world to have access to education.

We invite you now to enter our 2020 Monaco Masters Show journey, a tribute to our great Masters and Contemporary art.

Il suffit de peu pour répandre la vie !

Chers amis,

Ce que nous retiendrons de cette période si particulière, au-delà de la remise en question de nos modes de vies, c'est combien la solidarité est indispensable à notre survie. Ces derniers mois révèlent les inégalités cruelles entre les habitants de notre Terre.

Dans nos pays d'intervention, les mesures de confinement ont terriblement aggravé la précarité des plus démunis. Depuis le 17 mars, nous œuvrons aux côtés de ceux qui, ne jouissant pas de nos systèmes d'entraide européens, font face à la peur et à la faim.

Être confrontées au virus est plus supportable aux familles nécessiteuses que la perte d'emploi ou la hausse vertigineuse des prix de consommation, sans parler de la difficulté de l'accès aux soins... Nos équipes locales opèrent sur le terrain auprès de ceux qui ont faim.

En Arménie, nous distribuons ces colis à ceux qui, toujours confinés, ne perçoivent aucune indemnités de chômage. Nous opérons à distance, réglant les livraisons des supermarchés par carte de crédit. Chacun de nos dons est contrôlé par notre responsable locale.

Aux confins du désert de l'Ethiopie, les enfants d'Assyta reçoivent des mains de nos enseignants un soutien en produits d'hygiène et alimentaires. Au Laos, des sacs de riz sont distribués par notre coordinatrice aux parents chômeurs. Au Burkina Faso, des familles déplacées par les assauts meurtriers des djihadistes reçoivent des semences et des outils pour cultiver la terre qui les accueille. Notre équipe locale de Colombie distribue des colis alimentaires aux victimes de la faim dans les six régions où nous sommes implantés. En Afghanistan, où les contaminations augmentent de jour en jour, nous fournissons des produits de première nécessité aux familles des chauffeurs de taxi, aux vendeurs de rue confinés...

Avec Mission Enfance, répondez au besoin vital que nous adressent aujourd'hui les populations les plus pauvres : l'éducation, principale garante de leur survie demain.

Au sein de notre association, sortie du confinement signifie reprise des constructions de nos écoles comme en Irak pour les enfants kurdes réfugiés de Syrie, mais aussi au Laos où nous terminons deux collèges. Nos centres d'accueil et de formation rouvrent peu à peu, offrant des opportunités d'avenir aux enfants réfugiés, déplacés, aux victimes des conflits ou de la misère. Avec Mission Enfance, propagez la vie !

Notre objectif est de sauver le plus possible d'enfants par l'école. Cet accès à l'enseignement ne peut se faire que grâce à vous. L'humanité a besoin de vous, de votre solidarité. N'oublions pas combien celle-ci nous aura été salvatrice ces derniers temps...

C'est pourquoi nous remercions du fond du cœur Opera Gallery et son Masters Show 2020 qui permettent à Mission Enfance d'agir auprès des plus faibles.

It doesn't take much to spread life!

Dear Friends,

Beyond a reassessment of our lifestyles, what we will remember of this truly unique time is how important solidarity is to our survival. These past months have revealed the harsh inequalities between the residents of our Earth.

In the countries where we are present, the lockdown has severely exacerbated the insecurity of the poorest. Since March 17, we have been working with those who do not enjoy the benefits of our European mutual support systems, and are facing fear and hunger.

For families in need, dealing with the virus is easier than losing a job, or the dizzying rise in consumer prices, to say nothing of the difficulty in accessing health care... Our local teams are working in the field with those who are hungry.

In Armenia, we are distributing basic care packages to those who are still under lockdown and have no unemployment benefits. We intervene from afar, paying for supermarket deliveries by credit card. Each of our donations is verified by our local representative.

On the fringes of the Ethiopian desert, our teachers are supporting Assayata's children with food and personal hygiene products. In Laos, our coordinator distributes sacks of rice to unemployed parents. In Burkina Faso, families forced out of their homes by the deadly Jihadists attacks receive seeds and tools to cultivate the land at the sites where they are housed. Our local team in Colombia is distributing food packages to those suffering from hunger in the six regions where we are present. In Afghanistan, where the number of confirmed cases is increasing daily, we provide basic survival products to the families of taxi drivers, street vendors... who are all locked down.

With Mission Enfance, help fulfil the fundamental need of the poorest populations who are reaching out to us today: education is the best guarantee of their future survival.

For our association, coming out of lockdown means continuing the building work for our schools, like the ones in Iraq for the Kurdish child refugees from Syria, and those in Laos, where we are completing the construction of two high schools. Our centres and training programmes are opening up again slowly, offering opportunities for refugee and displaced children and victims of conflict or misery to build a future. Spread life with Mission Enfance!

Our aim is to save as many children as possible thanks to education. It is only with your support that we can offer them this access to learning. Humanity needs you and your support. We should never forget how salutary this solidarity has been in recent times...

We would like to thank Opera Gallery and its Masters Show 2020 from the bottom of our hearts, for their contribution to helping Mission Enfance support the weakests.
